Recessional

At Stevenson, our campuses use two distinct school prayers that come from the same Robert Louis Stevenson poem, "We Thank Thee." By tradition, our lower and middle divisions sing the first stanza of the prayer, and our upper division recites the final stanza.

Carmel Campus Prayer

We thank Thee for the place in which we dwell; For the love that unites us;
For the peace accorded us this day;
For the hope with which we expect the morrow; For the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies, That make our lives delightful;
And for our friends in all parts of the earth.

- Robert Louis Stevenson

Pebble Beach Campus Prayer

Oh Lord, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come,
that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath;
and in all changes of fortune, and, down to the gates of death,
loyal and loving to one another.

- Robert Louis Stevenson
