

STEVENSON

World Languages Course Eligibility Criteria Returning Students 2024

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 1 language course:

- Earning an A- or better in the spring semester and the recommendation of their Level 1 teacher may take Level 2 Honors
- Earning a C- or better may take Level 2
- Earning less than a C- should repeat Level 1.

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 2 language course:

- Earning a C- or better in the spring semester may take Level 3
- Earning less than a C- should repeat Level 2.
- Students from a Stevenson Level 2 regular class who wish to take 3 Honors the following year must earn an A- in the spring semester and have the recommendation of the level 2 teacher which may carry a requirement for a summer course.

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 2 Honors language course:

- Earning an A- or better in conjunction with the recommendation of their Level 2 Honors teacher may take Level 3 Honors.
- Earning a B + or below will have their eligibility determined by their teacher.

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 3 language course:

- Earning a C- or better in the spring semester may take Level 4
- Earning less than a C- should repeat Level 3.
- Students from a Stevenson Level 3 regular class who wish to take the AP Language course* the following year must earn an A- in the spring semester and have the recommendation of the level 3 teacher which may carry a requirement for a summer course. Note that the AP Spanish Language & Culture course has a summer reading assignment.

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 3 Honors language course:

- Earning an A- or better in conjunction with the recommendation of their Level 3 Honors teacher may take the AP Language course. Note that the AP Spanish Language & Culture course has a summer reading assignment.
- Earning a B + or below will have their eligibility determined by their teacher.

Students coming from a Stevenson Level 4 language course:

- Earning a C- or better in the spring semester may take Level 5 (if offered)
- Earning less than a C- should repeat Level 4.
- Students from a Stevenson Level 4 regular class who wish to take the AP Language course the following year must earn an A- or better in the spring semester and have the recommendation of the level 4 teacher which may carry a requirement for a summer course. Note that the AP Spanish Language & Culture course has a summer reading assignment.

Students coming from a Stevenson AP Language course:

- Earning a C- or better in the spring semester may take Level 5 (if offered)
- Earning an A- or better in the spring semester may take the AP Literature course (if offered). Note that the AP Spanish Literature & Culture course has a summer reading assignment.